TORONTO'S HERITAGE

Imagine waking up every day and seeing a thrilling piece of Toronto Heritage right out your window.

distillery district

Known as the largest distillery in the world by the late 1860s.

The Distillery District is recognized as a national historic site because of its unique collection of unusually harmonious, high-quality Victorian industrial buildings.

Most of the buildings on the site were designed by David Roberts, Sr. (1810-1881) and his son, David Roberts Jr. (1845-1907). The Irishborn engineer-millwright David Roberts Sr. emigrated to Toronto in 1844 where he made contact with Gooderham & Worts.

the HISTORY

Often used as a meeting place, the clock at the Distillery District is a perfect representation of the many public timepieces that were used in the early 1800's in Europe.

EVERYTHING YOU LOVE IS HERE.

Home to a wide range of public arts.

You can find installations including the world famous "Architect I.T." by Michael Christian, and "Under the Mistletoe". In the popular Mill Square you will find "Still Dancing" and the admired Love Lock installation unveiled in August 2014.

Whether you're looking for upscale dining or a quick al fresco drink and nibble on a cobblestone patio, you'll have lots of choices in the Distillery District.

Artscape functions as a multi-purpose property that occupies two heritage structures and provides space for artists working in many disciplines.

During the cold, dark days of winter, The Toronto Light Festival offers visitors a reason to bundle up and celebrate the season.

"We wanted to create something special, a happening that would lift the collective spirit of the City."

- Toronto Light Festival -

Let the season be merry and bright!

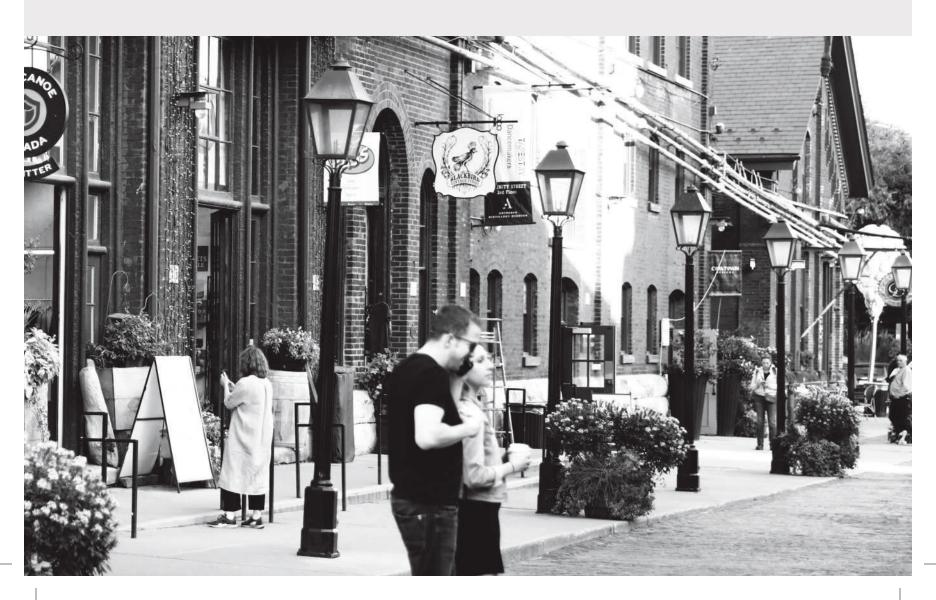

It's also the perfect time to visit one of the city's largest and most exquisite Christmas markets.

ne of the most intriguing aspects of life at No. 31 is that you are the master of your own destiny. Choose the hustle and bustle of the Distillery District, the verve and energy of King Street or the supreme tranquility of just choosing a quiet spot and contemplating how lucky you are to live in this magnificent space.

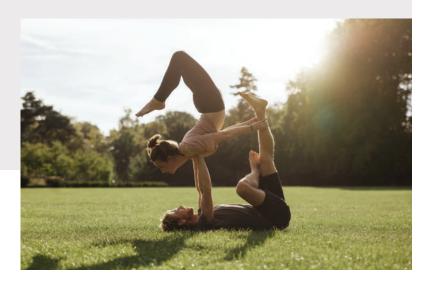

PARKS & TRAILS

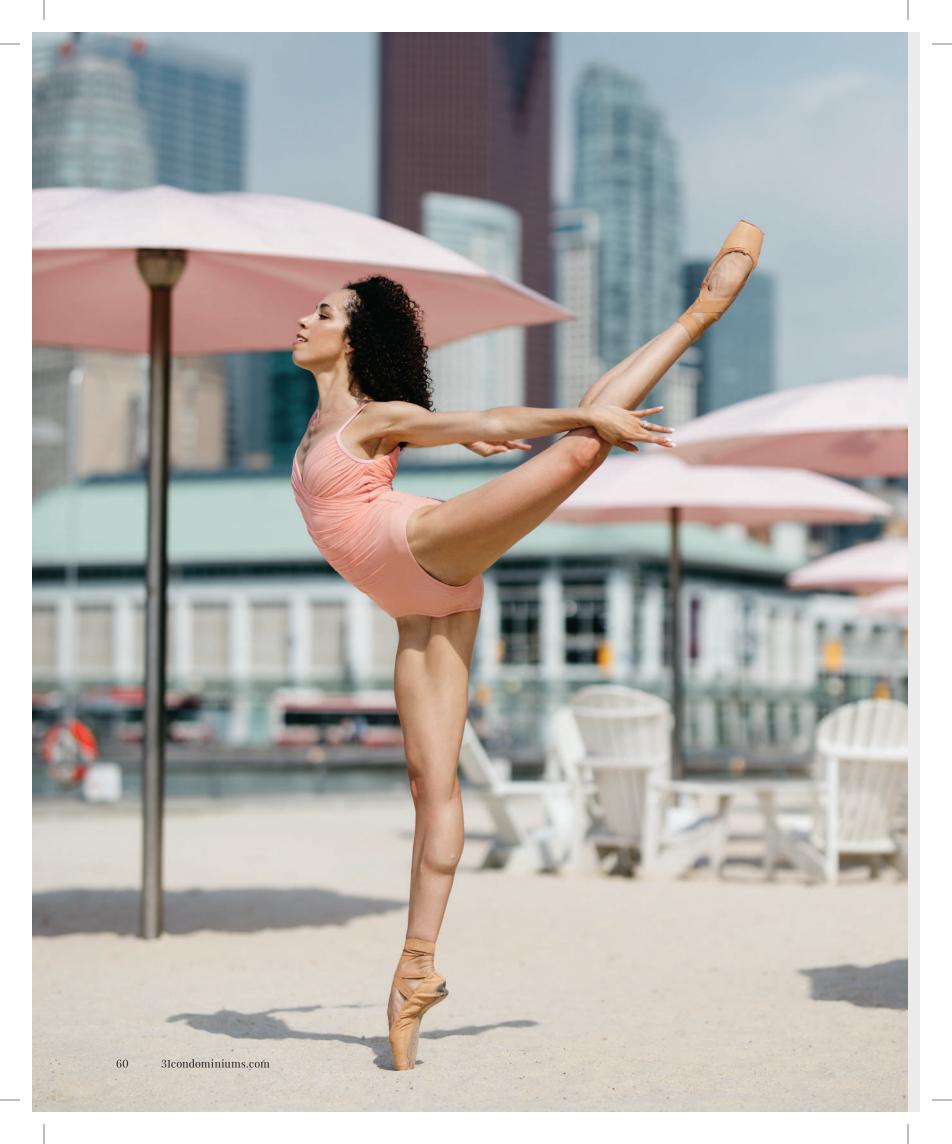

hen nature inspires you, green grass and open skies are a ready to engage your natural instincts.

Corktown Common borders on the Don River to the east and having once been an abandoned post-industrial site, the redevelopment was a $135 million project that now consists of hilly parks, trees, shrubs, playgrounds, a splash pad, benches and barbecues, bike paths, a boardwalk, an off-leash dog area, and an athletic field. A wetland pond makes for a spectacular walk through the park. Beaches Boardwalk is the natural place for families to walk with their children and pets and enjoy the beauty of Lake Ontario. In the summer the lake is warm enough for swimming and the fine beach sand is great for kids. There is also an off-leash park to allow dogs to run freely in a contained area. A paved bicycle trail runs parallel to The Boardwalk.

SUGAR BEACH

Sugar Beach....Sweet!

anada's Sugar Beach allows visitors to while away the afternoon as they read, play in the sand or watch boats on the lake. A dynamic water feature beside the beach makes cooling off fun for adults and children. Between the plaza and the beach, people can stroll through the park along a promenade featuring granite and tumbled concrete cobblestones in a maple leaf mosaic pattern.
